II. Rationale:

This seminar is organized to address the need for guided discussion on healthy relationships among university dormitory residents. Conducted on Valentine's Day, it aims to provide a respectful and educational platform for understanding love, courtship, and marriage. By inviting the ladies' dormitory, the activity also seeks to foster positive inter-dormitory relations and build a sense of community ahead of major social events.

SDG Alignment: SDG 3 (Good Health and Well-being), SDG 4 (Quality Education), SDG 5 (Gender Equality)

GAD Perspective: Promotes respectful relationships, gender sensitivity, and healthy interactions.

Legal Basis: Supports BSU's mandate on student development and welfare under RA 9500 (University Charter).

III. Objectives:

This activity aims to:

1.

To provide education and foster healthy perspectives on love, courtship, and marriage among dorm residents.
2.

To facilitate positive social interaction and communication between both dormitories.
3.

To equip participants with practical insights for building respectful and responsible relationships.

IV. Expected Output:

Participants will gain valuable knowledge and perspectives on relationship-building. The seminar is expected to foster a more respectful and understanding atmosphere between the dormitories, encourage healthy interactions, and provide a memorable community-building experience for all attendees.
